

Friends of Brooks Memorial Library Book Sale Donation Guidelines

Thanks to generous book donations, the Friends of Brooks Memorial Library are able to conduct book sales generating funds to support special library programs, resources (e.g. museum passes, Kanopy), and the purchase of library equipment.

During book sale season, donations can be brought to the main circulation desk during regular library hours. Please only donate books that are gently used and in good condition. To ensure quality, have a staff member look at your donation before dropping it off. If you have questions or if you have a large quantity of boxes to donate, call 802-254-5290, extension 0.
